

Advisory Opinion Letter Request

The USTA can provide an advisory opinion letter to support an individual's visa petition given the requirements below are met :

- The individual is a current USTA member and is licensed, if applicable, as a driver and/or trainer with the USTA (separate applications and additional fee information for membership and license are available at www.ustrotting.com)
- Information regarding the individual's background in harness racing is provided - accomplishments, employment, statistics, etc.
- An administrative fee of $100 is paid by check, money order or credit card

Once the above information is received, the USTA will provide a letter via email within three business days.
